...INTO THE CREATIVE ZONE.

ATTEND THIS WORKSHOP
IF YOU WANT TO GO FROM:

BLAH TO BRILLIANT!
INDIFFERENT TO INNOVATIVE!
PROBLEMS TO POSSIBILITIES!

Learn and apply
creative approaches
to goal-setting,
problem-solving, and
group dynamics.

Learn how to make
the work environment
more creative and how
to create a work culture
that fosters creativity and innovation.

Practice strategies
to enhance personal
creativity.

Identify blocks
to creativity and consider
ways to overcome them.

Study examples
from some of America's most innovative organizations,
such as Disney, Apple, Dell,
Pfizer, 3M, and GE.

Identify techniques
to encourage creativity in a group.

THINK OUTSIDE THE BOX...

There is something you saw once, and will never see again in your life.
In fact every living being saw it, and no one will ever see it again.

What is it

Facilitated by KRISTIN DONAHUE

Presenter, Kristin Donahue, believes that the key to success in business is helping others find success in themselves. Kristin is the owner/lead consultant of Employment Dimensions Consulting Services, LLC, an employment consulting company focused on employee retention and engagement.

Before moving to the Flathead Valley, Kristin spent five years as a Retention Specialist with a large health care system of almost 3,000 employees in Fort Collins, Colorado. She is an adjunct faculty member of the Continuing Education Department at FVCC, teaching supervisory skills and business development workshops. In addition to having served as an Employee Relations Specialist for Northwest Healthcare, she has worked with large and small businesses in the Flathead doing contract training and consulting.

Kristin holds a Masters degree in Human Resource Development from Colorado State University. She is a certified Thomas Concept instructor and HumaNext facilitator.

Participants describe Kristin as a knowledgeable presenter who is fun and energetic. She is known for giving an interactive presentation that combines content and discussion to the benefit of the learner.
